Have you noticed the monthly articles in the Herald Bulletin written by friends of the Museum? Contact Nancy Noel if you have an idea for a topic or would be interested in writing an article.

Contact Leona Anderson if you or anyone you know can volunteer at the Museum. Volunteers are needed to serve as tour guides for school children, dusting, taking pictures, plus the all important hosting.

On April 31st, will be the 4th annual Chicken Noodle Dinner in the Community Building from 5-7 pm. Tickets will be sold in advance at a cost of $7. Carryout available.

The weekend of April 31 to May 2 the museum will be hosting the 2nd annual Encounter at the Falls. This event will bring re-enactors to the park to set up a Civil War encampment complete with “sutlers” (shopkeepers). Visitors are free to roam among the encampment. Plan on attending the barn dance on Saturday night.

Rain threatened at last year’s golf tournament but held off until the last group was finishing up. Players and sponsors, as always, will be needed for the 5th Annual Golf Tournament on Saturday, May 22.

Are you ready to do some spring housecleaning? The museum is always looking for new items to put on display. Contact any board member to make a donation to the museum.

Items donated in 2009: shadow box of Valentines; two Samuel Hicks coverlets, one dated 1870; bottle of Sloan’s Liniment; black satin high-heel shoes; books & magazines; Markleville, Pendleton & Pendleton Heights memorabilia; inmate textile from the Reformatory; silver lantern used to light gas street lamps in Pendleton; pictures, post cards & photo albums; 1800’s lava bowl; tailor scissors; wood planes; Army & Air Force uniforms; Telekit Television; quilt stand; bedroom suite; can labels from Fall Creek cannery; Guide Lamp memorabilia; 1800’s kitchen chairs; 1970 Pendleton Sesquicentennial memorabilia;

WWII war ration books; bingo cards; railroad spike; VFW Post Commander hat; swivel oil lamp, holders, reflectors & shades; 1939-1975 4-H ribbons; hand woven baskets; crocks; Red Comet fire extinguisher; Kellogg wall phone; butter paddles; slaw cutter; Civil War era shotgun; churns; and more.

The Spring Valley Quilt Club had another successful quilt show at the museum during the Heritage Fair. Using the money collected from those visiting the show the Club was able to donate $1,508 to the museum. Since the guild started the show in 1985 they have given a total of $28,123 to the Museum.

The museum again sold Sahn’s coffee cake and coffee from Slice of Heaven at the Heritage Fair. Plan to visit us again this fall in front of the museum. Notice the Red Bud tree donated by the Saturday Club as it blooms this spring.
